PROGRESS REPORT

OPERATIONAL (General)

1. ATTACHMENT B is a report of vehicle registrations checks.
2. ATTACHMENT C contains the information on the hotel registrations of two persons included in a list of 6. Registrations for the remaining four persons were not located.
3. The files of Air France were checked to determine if and when either Wladimir PETROV and Anni BOCHNER flew to Berlin. These reports are contained in ATTACHMENT D. On 26 October 1955 members of the C team covered a meeting between BOCHNER and two Americans to see if BOCHNER had been surveilled by other persons. No one was seen; a vehicle bearing a given license number was not seen in the vicinity.
4. Jordan Ivanoff ANASTASSOV was surveilled to learn the type of automobile he drove. This report is ATTACHMENT E.
5. Lubomir FESL allegedly was attending the fair in Duesseldorf. C 5 was to locate him there, if possible, and report his whereabouts to a Mr. Hall. The report of the inability of C 5 to locate FESL is ATTACHMENT F.
6. Residents Registration Office checks were made to ascertain if the mark "illegal" was on any of them. The findings of these checks are contained in ATTACHMENT G.
7. Neighborhood and/or records checks were completed on the following:
 - a. ATTACHMENT H: Bayazirsa HAYIT
 - b. ATTACHMENT I: Albert RONIGER
 - c. ATTACHMENT J: Helmut FISCHER and Elfriede NEUMANN
 - d. ATTACHMENT K: Georg STEIN
 - e. ATTACHMENT L: Wilhelm Karl JUDE
 - f. ATTACHMENT M: Fritz and Hans Dieter ERNST
 - g. ATTACHMENT N: Paula Maria RITTER
 - h. ATTACHMENT O: Johann Friedrich FREUDENBERG
8. While C 1 was checking on FREUDENBERG, he had an encounter with the German Police in Bremerhaven. His report of this affair is ATTACHMENT P.
9. Surveillance was conducted on Olaf Zbigniew WEYHER while he stayed in Frankfurt. According to information received, he was to have returned to Frankfurt after a stay in Switzerland and France. Several days were spent about the time of his alleged return, covering the railroad station and also

10 October 1953

Subject: Fritz and Hans Dieter EMMET

1. A check of the files at the Hanau Residents Registration Office revealed that neither Fritz nor Hans Dieter is registered. The attendant said that persons living in the Hanau Refugee Camp are not registered with the Registration Office, and suggested that the camp be checked.

2. The gate man at the Refugee Camp said that Fritz EMMET lives in Barrack 50-A-15. He did not know if Fritz worked, but gave the telephone number Hanau 3150 and said that he would find out and he could be called for the information.

3. The gate man said that Hans Dieter had moved to Kreis Dillenburg and the only address they now have is Kreisfluchtlinglager Dillenburg.
